INSTITUTE CLOSSES

Had Interesting and Beneficial Session—
Good Attendance of Teachers and Visitors.

WEDNESDAY—Morning.

The devotional exercises of Wednesday morning were conducted by O. D. Spence. After roll call Mr. Williams, of the State Normal School at Bowling Green, Ky., talked to the institute a few minutes telling of the call for well trained teachers.

The class of little ones again being present, Prof. Sharon showed how quickly they could learn to read by the word method. Whether the term "recitation" was a good one or not was discussed by C. E. Thomas and others. That which constitutes a good recitation was discussed by the institute.

Some very helpful remarks were made by F. M. Pogue on the "art of questioning." Mr. Charles Grady says that the art of questioning through the personality of the teacher was the life of the recitation. Though a visitor, Mr. Grady from time to time made some very helpful remarks.

When the institute was called to order after a short recess Mrs. W. O. Tucker favored the body with an instrumental solo. Dr. Daugherty delighted the institute with a paper on "The Proper Methods of Instruction in giving the child a true and useful education." J. B. McNeely made the motion which was carried that this paper be printed as part of the minutes of the institute. Prof. Sharon told of his way of teaching history which was very instructive. Miss Corda Wheeler gave some good points by which impudence and rebellion could be treated. Institute stood adjourned until the afternoon.

WEDNESDAY—Afternoon.

After song and roll call, Dr. Vernon Fox made a splendid talk on how Physiology should be taught. He made his discussions very interesting by drawings. Prof. Williams very pointedly gave the evil effects of the tobacco habit. Dr. L. F. Moore said that children should be taught how to live and properly care for their bodies for the sake of their own health.

Mr. Fred Stone says that "whispering in school has many causes, but no cure as he can find.

The institute was then adjourned until Thursday morning.

THURSDAY—Morning.

The institute was called to order Thursday morning by Vice-President Thomas. Devotional exercises were conducted by Prof. Williams, of Bowling Green. When the roll had been called Instructor Sharon took his class of faithful little ones and showed what wonderful progress they could make by the proper training.

"The aim of public schools" was quite an interesting topic. From the views of Miss Ethel Hard, Bro. Elgin and the Instructor, it can be summed up that the ultimate aim is to make men and women by educating them physically, mentally and greatest of all, morally. Prof. Williams gave some interesting statistics of the rate of increase of crime in some portions of the country and its decrease in others. He thinks this is due to the way they are taught. Mr. E. E. Phillips showed the exemplary way in which the teacher should go because his manner and habits effect the pupil.

Mr. Williams made quite an interesting and instructive talk on What is Teaching? His answer to this question was: "Teaching is placing before a student or body of students an object or subject in such a way as to attract and hold the attention and to put into operation the proper mental and physical powers so that the result will be knowledge, skill and power."

Recess was announced at this period. If all teachers were as Misses Iva Hicklin and Verda Guill, ideal teachers, this county would have a far better educated population. Miss Tinnie Wheeler gave some good points as to what teachers should read. She emphasized the remark that they should do more general reading.

Miss Emma Terry and A. A. Fritts took a peep into the future and told their opinion of the coming teacher. Miss Vienna Roberts gave a very earnest talk on why moral instruction is the highest duty placed upon a teacher. J. C. Hardin also gave his views on this subject. After a few remarks along the same line by the Instructor, adjournment for dinner was announced.

THURSDAY—Afternoon.

When the institute had been called to order, "How moral acts become habits" was nicely told by Miss Mary Towery and O. D. Spence. Miss Jennie Clement made a good talk and Mary Lou Wilborn read an excellent paper on "How may the example of the teacher be a great factor in moral training." They think the school is a reproduction of the teacher, therefore he should be very careful.

Some good ways by which obedience to, and respect for the law may be inculcated were given by Miss May Hoyt. The highest aim of education is to make better men and women so thinks Misses Elva Roberts and Margaret Rankin.

The institute discussed the subject "Wills," and gave some examples of will power. He says if the teacher exerts the proper will power crime will decrease. Misses Willie Clement and Hattie Majors told in what way knowledge was power.

Bro. Price, as always, had something good to tell the teachers. The institute adjourned at 3 o'clock.

THURSDAY—Evening.

Quite a number of Marion people as well as the teachers gathered in the School Auditorium Thursday evening and were entertained by recitations by Misses May Hoyt and Lena Holtsclaw. Music was beautifully rendered by Mrs. Walker, Misses Sallie Woods and Gwendolyn Haynes. An instructive lecture was given by Prof. Sharon on "Two Cycles of Literature."

FRIDAY—Morning.

The institute was called to order at 8:30 Friday morning. The devotional exercises were conducted by the Rev. Butler.

After roll call a representative of the Bowling Green business school made a few remarks in behalf of his school. Prof. Sharon then gave a few moments to his little class. Those not using the word method were compelled to acknowledge its superiority over other methods. The committee on daily program for the county schools being ready to report, the chairman, Prof. King, explained the program which they had made.

At the close of recess a solo by Mrs. Walker was much enjoyed.

Arithmetic was the next subject taken up. Misses Ruth Hill and Corda Smart gave their opinions of the two underlying principles of Arithmetic.

Mrs. Walker told her methods of teaching numbers to the beginners. Prof. Sharon showed how many of the hard points of Arithmetic could be made practical thereby making it easier for the pupils to understand. The body was adjourned until 1:30 p. m.

(Concluded next week.)

AT CHURCHILL DOWNS

Historic Race Course at Louisville will be Location of 1907 Exhibitions.

After three weeks of negotiations with the owners of Douglas Park at Louisville, resulting in a failure to induce them to lease the grounds for the 1907 Kentucky State Fair, pending the clearing of the title to the property and adjustment of other matters in connection with the purchase of the track and buildings as a permanent location, the Kentucky State Board of Agriculture has been given the use of Churchill Downs at Louisville for holding this year's exhibition during the week of Sept. 16. The Kentucky State Fair will therefore be held on the dates mentioned, at historic Churchill Downs, where the Fair last year was held.

Messrs. Charles F. Grainger and Matt J. Winn, representing the Churchill Downs interests, have agreed to the use of these grounds and the committee representing the State Board have extended to them a vote of cordial thanks for their liberality in the matter, inasmuch as much as the grounds are tendered to the State Fair upon terms agreeable to the State Fair management.

Churchill Downs, while a typical race course, is considered to be the best equipped State Fair grounds in south, with the possible exception of the Texas Fair grounds. There will be an abundance of stall room for all kinds of live stock, there is a big grand stand and there are buildings suitable for the departments which must be shown indoors.

The entry list in the different exhibit departments is the greatest in the history of the Kentucky State Fair, at this time, three weeks prior to the exhibition.

The State Fair management is spending over $7,000.00 in exploitation and expects record breaking attendance daily. Some of the greatest amusement enterprises in the country have been contracted with for State Fair week.

Change in Firm.

Having bought my partner's interest in the Marion Coal & Transfer Co., I am now sole owner. I wish to thank the public for all past favors, and solicit your future orders. I will endeavor to treat every body right and hope to merit your business.

Please telephone your orders in plenty of time, so that we may fill them promptly. My price for hauling baggage is 15 cents for each piece one way during the week, 25 cents on Sunday.

O. H. PARIS, Mgr.
Marion Coal & Transfer Co.

Brother Against Brother.

Paducah, Ky., Aug. 26.—It is possible that W. F. Paris and Robert Paris, brothers, of Livingston county, may oppose each other for the legislature in the Livingston-Crittenden district, the former as a Republican and the latter as a Democrat. Robert Paris has already been nominated by the Democrats.

He was formerly a Republican, and the district is close enough to make a race interesting, although the Democratic candidate has a shade the best of it.

Miss Maude Flanary entertained a number of her friends Tuesday night. Delicious refreshments, consisting of ice cream and cake, were served and all spent a pleasant evening. Those invited were:

Madeline Jenkins, Katie Yates, Marion Clement, Gwendoline Haynes, Annie Elgin, Fannie Blue, Nannie Rochester, Galen Dixon, Sylvan Price, Homer Moore, Orlin Moore, Robert Jenkins, Emmett Clifton and Gray Rochester.

Miss Marion Clement entertained Wednesday evening, last, in honor of her visitor, Miss Mary L. Myers. Refreshments of frappe, ice cream and cake were served and a most delightful evening was spent by everyone. Those invited were:

Annie Elgin, Maude Flanary, Madeline Jenkins, Gwendoline Haynes, Mira Dixon, Robert Jenkins, Galen Dixon, Orlin Moore, Aubrey Cannon, Gray Rochester, Emmett Clifton, Sylvan Price.

Mrs. Lewis Bebout Entertains.

Mrs. Lewis L. Bebout entertained Thursday afternoon from 3 to 6 o'clock complimentary to Miss Mildred Sue Bebout, of Sheridan, Ky.

Many games were indulged in by the young people, after which delicious refreshments were served. Those present were: Misses Mildred Sue Bebout, Sheridan, Ky.; Alice Thompson, Cairo, Ill.; Lucille Tompkins, Dixon, Ky.; Vivian Cosby, Loraine Cosby, Louise Thompson, Fannie Thompson, Nell Meyers, Hattie Henneberger, Mildred Anderson, Myrtle, Marjorie and Jennie Hans. —Paducah News Democrat.

Destructive Wreck Near Dawson.

Dawson, Springs, Ky., Aug. 26.—One of the worst wrecks that has occurred on the main line of the Illinois Central in years occurred just south of this place on the first bridge yesterday morning between five and six o'clock, when freight train No. 188 crashed into the rear end of freight No. 186 which had just been let into the block.

Failure of the air to work on train No. 188 was given as the cause and the engine was precipitated to the ground fifteen below, together with seven cars loaded with lumber. The track was torn up for some distance.

The accident rendered the track impassable and the through passenger trains were sent over the L. & N. to Henderson and then down the Henderson division to Princeton, but the local passengers were transferred over the wreck.

King-Milligan.

Married at the home of R. A. LaRue August 24th, Mr. W. J. King and Miss Sophia Milligan.

The groom is the popular superintendent of the Keystone mines, and is deservingly a favorite with his many friends and associates.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Nan Milligan formerly of this section. Of late years, she has been making her home with her sister, Mrs. Leslie Davidson, of this place. The Record-Press joins their many friends in wishing them a prosperous voyage and a safe landing.

Costs almost nothing to use Rex Poultry Food Condiments. 1 cent for 15 feeds. Valuable $2.00 gift with $1.00 purchases. N. J. Bishop, Crayneville, Ky.

Secure Reliable Indemnity
In an Experienced Agency

Gholson, of Fredonia, have returned home after a pleasant visit to Mrs. Jennie Gray.

Mrs. Maggie Cassidy, of Dycusburg, who has been visiting at Brookhaven, Miss., enroute home, remained in Princeton a few days as the pleasant guest of her sister, Mrs. Jennie Gray.

Prancing Pickaninnies

Coming Thursday, Aug. 29, the Prancing Pickaninnies in their great minstrel performance. Will be in Marion one week. Don't fail to see and hear them in their latest ballad songs and also their rag-time songs. Don't fail to see Turner and Jasper in their buck and wing dancing, the best on the road. Hear the little pickaninnies in their coon songs. Whatever you do watch Rose Bud, the funniest negro comedians of the day; he will certainly be the talk of the town. To see and hear the ladies of this show will be worth double the money you pay to see the entire show, for they never fail to capture their audience. We change program every performance. Admission 10 and 20 cents, reserved seats 25 cents.

Base Ball Game.

Marion and Princeton, No. 2, met on the former diamond last Thursday afternoon. The score was nine to two in Marion's favor. "Jimmie" Wacker, of Evansville, pitched the game for Marion and the boys did some splendid playing.

Our team was so encouraged by their success last week that they have challenged Princeton No. 1 and they will play here (today) Thursday afternoon.

CALDWELL COUNTY NEWS.

(From PRINCETON LEADER.)

Miss Fannie Jackson, after a delightful visit of several days to Miss Carrie White, returned to her home near Fredonia yesterday.

Miss Virginia Nunn, the charming and accomplished daughter of Judge T. J. Nunn, of Frankfort, is Miss Agnes Orr's pleasant guest.

Mr. J. A. Stegar has, in the past few weeks, sold three building lots, or all the vacant lots back of his home and that of Mr. J. R. Wylie. The first lot, with a forty-five foot front, and next to the new hotel building of Lester Bros., was sold to Mr. W. H. Lloyd, of Morgantown.

Lester Bros. took the lot next to the one bought by Mr. Lloyd, it having a sixty foot front. The third and corner lot, was sold to Mr. E. J. Hayward, the banker of Marion, who like the other purchasers, will probably build right soon. All these lots being very desirable, sold at twenty-five dollars per front foot, making the lots bring over thirty-eight hundred dollars. This sale of lots is very convincing that Princeton property is alright as an investment, especially when men like Mr. Hayward, who is regarded as one of the State's best and most successful business men invest in property.

Miss Mary Lou and Amanda Akin returned yesterday from a visit to Hopkinsville. They were accompanied home by Mrs. Mildred Hall, who is now their guest.

Farmers' Meeting.

The County Union of the A. S. of E. is hereby requested to meet in Marion on Monday, Sept. 2, 1907. All local unions are requested to be represented and be prepared to report the number of acres of tobacco pledged. Also each magisterial district having membership in the Steming Association (any person is a member of this association that pools his tobacco) is requested to elect a member to the county board by the above date, so this board can elect a delegate to the district board, which meets in Henderson on the first Saturday in September.

It looks as though there will be no trouble in getting enough tobacco pooled to handle it at Marion. Farmers desiring to pool their tobacco should do so at once. Anyone desiring to pool his tobacco, or join the Association will have a chance to do so at this meeting.

A. F. WOOLE, Pres.
County Union.
